A Visual Journal

This half term I am challenging you to create an illustrated page every single day for 47 days.

The idea is that each day, you create one illustrated page that best represents your day.

You might like to start with a sketch of your breakfast, then perhaps a drawing of something you thought you had lost.

Maybe you can snatch a bit of time to sketch the things scattered around the room you are in.

You can use pencil, pen, colours, paint or anything you wish.

The only rule is to HAVE FUN!!!

Do not be intimidated by or compare your pages to other people's work! This is your journal.

You should work on the basic layout of one page every day.

Each page should include the date, along with both text and illustrations to represent your day.

If you choose to create your art journal in digital form, this is fine too!

You can share your work if you wish and I will aim to do the same.

The journal starts on Monday 1st June

Have fun!
